Citizenship Washington Focus is a 4-H leadership program for high school youth held June 15-24, 2023. The program is aimed at enriching young people's lives by broadening their appreciation and respect for themselves and others in the world.

To be eligible to attend Citizenship Washington Focus, youth must be at least 15 years of age by June 1, 2023. Youth must have an ACTIVE status in online 4-H enrollment system. Youth who are graduating in 2023 may attend CWF in 2023.

Transmittal forms and total payment are due to the State 4-H office by February 21, 2023. Cost for the 10 day program is $2,500 per delegate.

Payment for delegate must be received with transmittal form by deadline above to be considered a registered delegate. There are 49 delegate spots available. The registered and paid delegates will be placed in spots on a first come and paid basis. After the February 21, 2023 deadline, if there are unfilled spots available, alternates will be listed by age and birthdate and spots will be filled oldest to youngest.

IMPRESSIVE DRESS

This will be a fun and creative challenge that will enhance our members public speaking skills as well as learning about appropriate dress for every occasion. Buying new clothes for this contest is highly discouraged. Participants will introduce themselves and tell what 4-H club they belong to and give a brief description of their outfit that explains the following: why they chose their outfit, why it fits the category, where they might wear it and what their favorite part of the outfit is and why.

Beginner: 3rd-7th Grades
Advanced: 8th-12th Grades CLOVERBUDS may model one outfit of their choice and introduce themselves. Cloverbuds will not be judged competitively. They will each receive a Participation ribbon.

SNAPPY CASUAL Everyday nice outfit coordinated for a specific event (school, social, etc) (Jeans without holes, slacks, appropriate length shorts, skirts, dresses, coordinated separates, shirts with a collar, blouse or a t-shirt with appropriate slogans (4-H); Casual shoes, nice tennis shoes, or boots.)

DRESS CLOTHES Outfits designed for professional business or dressy occasions (suit jacket, tie, slacks, dress, etc) (No denim) (Outfits cannot be considered Formal Wear).

FRUGAL FASHION The purpose for this project/product is for youth to demonstrate their ability to be a thrifty consumer. Assemble a complete ensemble from items purchased at a thrift/consignment store/garage sale and/or similar source. Only clothes that are visible (does not include undergarments) and accessories are to be included in the finished ensemble. Shoes can be included but are not required. The participant is to model the complete outfit.

Include a Frugal Fashion Report which is a brief, written report including itemized price list and where each item was purchased or acquired. List any repairs or special attention that was needed to make use of the thrift items (belt polished, button sewn on, starched jeans, etc.). List the total cost of the ensemble.
