May 2021

- April Recap

April is a busy planning month! We hope this spring is treating you well with the many events that are being allowed to happen again. If you haven't already been in contact with us to pick up your Demonstration Speech results, feel free to contact us at any time.

Culinary Contests May 15

The time is here to get those registrations in for the Caddo County Culinary Contest that will be held at the Baldwin Building on the Caddo County Fairgrounds. Contact your Club leaders for an entry form. Entries are due to the Extension Office by Tuesday, May 11th. There is no charge for the Caddo County contest. Caddo Culinary Contest is open to members in the 3rd to 12th grade. Contact the Caddo County Extension office with any questions.

Summer Camp to be Held in June

With restrictions easing somewhat, we are making plans for a 4-H Jr Camp. This will be a one day camp with limited attendance and observance of current OSU Covid-19 guidelines. The date would be June 8, 9 or 10. Currently, all club leaders have a survey to help give us the best estimate for those wanting to participate in this year's Summer Camp. Camp will be held at the Baldwin Building, located on the Caddo County Fairgrounds. Registrations will be going out very shortly. You can also stop by the Caddo County Extension Office to complete registration. Parents MUST be present to register your child as we have forms that must be signed. Registration will be on a first come first served basis. We MUST have ALL forms filled out and SIGNED for your child to be registered to attend!

2021 State 4-H Roundup

Plans are underway for the 2021 Roundup to be back in person as well virtual this year on the Oklahoma State University Campus. Restrictions are still in place going forward with the Roundup as to limiting how many can attend from each county. Registrations will be due June 15, 2021, you can find the current schedule of events on: <https://4h.okstate.edu/events/state-4-h-roundup/index.html>
