1. The Board of Directors of the Choctaw County Junior Livestock Show reserves the right to interpret these Rules and Regulations and arbitrarily settle all questions under the management of the Board of Directors. The Executive Committee consists of the President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, FFA Advisors and OSU Extension Agent.

2. The Board of Directors reserves the right to amend or add to these rules as they, in their judgment, deem advisable.

3. All rule changes should be made before May 10 of the preceding year. Any changes after that date must be passed by 75% of the members present at the meeting and at least thirteen (13) members must be present to have a quorum. Board members missing three (3) consecutive meetings are subject to replacement by appointment officials.

4. Any person who is found by the Board to be in violation of any rules will forfeit all privileges and premiums, and be subject to any penalty the Board of Directors deem advisable.

5. No claim for injury to any person or property shall ever be presented or suit instituted or maintained by the Choctaw County Junior Livestock Show, its’ officers or agents or agents, on behalf of any person, firm or corporation, or their agents, representatives, servants or employees, having a license or privilege to exhibit on the fairgrounds or to occupy the space thereon.

6. 4-H and FFA members who qualify under the Oklahoma 4-H and FFA organizations’ rules and attend school in a Choctaw County school district, or are home schooled in Choctaw County, or attend a private school and resides in the designated geographic area for a Choctaw County School, are eligible to exhibit at the Choctaw County Junior Livestock Shows. All exhibitors must be a student in good standing in their respective school, as per the OSSA rule listed in the OSSA Handbook concerning eligible students and competitive activities. 4-H members in at least the 3rd grade and who are eight (8) years of age before September 1st can exhibit in the show.

7. If it is ascertained that any exhibitor has made or caused to make any false statement in regard to an animal or article, or if any individual shall attempt to interfere with the judges in the performance of their duty, the exhibitor will be excluded from all competition or exhibition on the grounds of the show; and any reward that the exhibitor may have received may be forfeited at the discretion of the Board of Directors.

8. Ring Superintendents will be assigned for each division for the entire show. Ring Superintendents will designate authorized personnel (Board Members) to work inside the show ring and line up show order and sale order. Any discussion by the Judge will be directed to the Ring Superintendent.

9. The Board of Directors shall assign stalls or space. Exhibitors will be expected to keep their space or stall in a clean condition at all times during the show and be eligible for the Herdsmanship Award.

10. No diseased animal shall, knowingly, be permitted to exhibit or occupy stalls in the show, and every precaution will be used to enforce this rule, but the management will not be responsible for any loss or damage that may be sustained by anyone through any violation of this rule.
11. No animal can be taken from the grounds that have been entered without written release from the Superintendent of that division to the show, except for the purpose of exercising an animal in the immediate area (park, rodeo grounds or Agriplex parking lot). No animal should be re-trailer after animal has been checked in.

12. No more than a total of two steers, two breeding heifers, two sheep, two wether goats, two breeding doe goats, two market barrows, two breeding gilts and one pen of broilers may be registered per exhibitor. Both of the animals in each species may be entered for the Choctaw County Junior Livestock Show. Only one beef animal, one sheep, one goat, one swine, and one pen of broilers can be sold in the premium auction per exhibitor.

13. All animals are to be exhibited by the owner, EXCEPT when the exhibitor has more than one entry in class or has an acceptable reason for not showing. In such exceptions, an animal may be shown by another club member from within the County with the approval of Ag Teachers and 4-H Agent.

14. The decision of the officials will be final and no appeal will be considered except in case of written protest directed to the Board of Directors, accompanied by a $100 case protest fee. The $100 protest fee will be refunded only if the Board of Directors acts in favor of the plaintiff. All protests will be acted on by the Board of Directors.

15. The management reserves the right to remove from the grounds, any exhibitor’s animal that may have been falsely entered or may be deemed unsuitable or objectionable by them without giving notice thereof.

16. Only Choctaw County Extension personnel, Ag Teachers, 4-H Leaders, parents, exhibitors and Choctaw County residents are allowed to groom animals on the premises.

17. All animals will be removed from the grounds following the premium auction.

18. Exhibitors will be required to present a current framed 8X10 picture made by the official Choctaw County Junior Livestock Show photographer to the buyer that contributes $100.00 or more on their animal at the premium sale. All pictures must be taken the night the animal is shown.

19. A $20.00 nomination fee per animal or per pen of broilers will be paid at the time of registration. This fee will be collected at registration and receipt written with a copy returned to the exhibitor.

20. The exhibitor must individually own all animals. All animals must be at the exhibitor’s house unless approval by the Choctaw County Junior Livestock Board prior to registration and all projects requiring prior approval be recommended and supervised by the Ag teacher. No animal will be approved to be kept at a Breeder/Seller’s facility. The Choctaw County Junior Livestock Board reserves the right to make periodic checks of animals at any time to inspect or verify possession and condition of any livestock registered for the Choctaw County Junior Livestock Show.

21. No animal shall be replaced after registration date for each respective species.

22. Best County Bred is open to animals that were born and raised on a ranch in Choctaw County; or, the ranch of a breeder who resides in or raises cattle, sheep, goats or swine in a Choctaw County School District; or, a breeder who resides in Choctaw County and whose ranch, where his animals are raised, is in a County adjoining Choctaw County. Selection of Best County Bred in each species will be determined by the highest placing in preliminary sale order.

23. Showmanship will be judged on how the 4-H and FFA members present their own animals in the show ring and how the animal is groomed for presentation. Any exhibitor that wishes to compete for showmanship may return to the ring for placing by the official Judge. Showmanship in all species will be divided into three age divisions: JUNIOR: Ages 8-12; INTERMEDIATE: Ages 13-15; and, SENIOR: Ages 16-18. (As per Oklahoma Youth Expo).
