Under Oklahoma law, an equine activity sponsor or equine professional cannot be held liable for an injury to, or the death of a person engaged in equine activities when such injuries result from the inherent risks of equine activities. OKLAHOMA STATUTES TITLE 76-50

I, (print exhibitor's name) _____ have read the above statement regarding liability during an equine event. I understand that Major County, City of Fairview, any Major County Fair Board member, and/or any Show Management Official including Show Superintendent or Judge cannot be held responsible for any accidents resulting in injury or death to a participant. By my presence on these grounds, I am accepting the limits of liability resulting from the inherent risks associated with equine activities and understand that all activities on these grounds are subject to the Equine Inherent Risk Law.

I have been given a copy and understand the rules of the Major County Fair Horse Expo.
