There is no charge for admission to view the exhibits. This organization in no way warrants that COVID-19 infection will not occur through participation in our program or accessing our facilities. Any persons attending or participating in the Noble County Free Fair is strongly encouraged to follow CDC and/or State of Oklahoma guidelines to help prevent the spread of the COVID-19 virus. Those with pre-existing conditions are strongly advised to not attend or participate in the Noble County Free Fair. Please note that these activities are subject to cancellation without notice. The situation will be monitored by Noble County Officials and the Noble County Fair Board on an on going basis, however, every effort will be made to hold the event as scheduled in this book.

No claim for any injury to a person or property shall ever be asserted or suit instituted or maintained against the Noble County Free Fair Board, its officers or their agents, representatives, servants or employees having a license or privilege to exhibit on the fairgrounds or to occupy space thereon.

For the safety of exhibitors, livestock and visitors, the only animals allowed on the fairgrounds during the fair are only those being exhibited and service animals properly marked.

ALL RULES AND SCHEDULES LISTED HEREIN SHALL SUPERSEDE ALL OTHER PUBLISHED INFORMATION.

GENERAL RULES

Believing it is in the best interest of all exhibitors to maintain a reputation of integrity and to continue to present a wholesome and professional image, the following rules and regulations have been established. Final interpretations of the rules will be made by show management whose decisions are final.

All exhibitors must live in Noble County or be a member of a Noble County FFA or 4-H Club in good standing.

The Fair Board asks that all exhibitors and visitors respect the grounds and those that maintain the facilities.

Management reserves the right to amend or add to these rules as they deem advisable. The interpretation and enforcement of all rules and regulations enacted by the Noble County Fair Board will be the sole responsibility of the superintendents. All disputes shall be immediately reported to the acting superintendent who shall then determine the applicability of the rules and regulations. Any protest of the superintendent's interpretation of the rules and regulations must be presented in writing to the Noble County Fair Board at the next regularly scheduled meeting. Please note that protests must be filed one hour before a show begins with the superintendent and along with a $75 protest fee to a Fair Board representative. A committee of three Fair Board members hereafter referred to as the Executive Board, has been formed to assist any superintendent in interpreting rules when necessary. The Executive Board has final and absolute right to determine all questions brought to it by the superintendent. The decision of the judge is final and no appeal will be considered except in the case of a protest.

Any person who violates any of the rules will forfeit all privileges, premiums, and may be subject to such penalty as the board may order. If it is ascertained that any exhibitor has made or caused to be made any false statement in regard to an exhibit, or if any exhibitor attempts to criticize or interfere with the judges in the performance of their duty, he or she will be excluded from all competition or exhibition on the fairgrounds, and any awards that may have been received may be forfeited at the discretion of the Executive Board. Criticizing or interfering with exhibitors, breed representatives or show officials at any time during the Fair may result in an individual or group being expelled, placed on probation, declared ineligible or barred from exhibiting at the event.

Management reserves the right to remove from the grounds any exhibit, animal, concession or show that may have been falsely entered or may be deemed unsafe, unsuitable or objectionable by them without giving any reason therefore.

All property located at the fairgrounds of every exhibitor entered at the fair for any purpose will be subject to the control of the superintendent in charge. Any member of the Fair Board will have access to all premises of any persons on the fairground or concessions during the fair.

Neither the Noble County Free Fair Board members, management, nor the livestock show officials are responsible for any accident or loss incurred during the fair.

Only the superintendent or their assistant will attach ribbons. Each entry will be judged on its merit, if no entries are worthy of the first prize, second prize will be the highest award in such class. 4-H Club and FFA members must have separate and distinct exhibits in case they show in both the junior (club) and open classes.

All premiums will be paid as soon as taxes are collected and money is turned over to the Fair Board Treasurer. The Fair Board reserves the right to adjust the premiums of this catalog if it becomes necessary. In paying premiums, the evidence of award will be in the judges' books that are turned over to the Secretary. All awards will be presented when winners are selected.

All rules that are applicable shall be made a part of all contracts with concessionaires.

All entries MUST be wired for hanging on pegboards OR be able to be hung with binder clips and matted. No glass.

Children entries do not have to be framed or matted. List age of exhibitor on entry tag. Need to be able to hang up on pegboard.

All exhibits must be the work of the exhibitor since September 2023 and must be dry. All pictures must be original work. No copies. Cannot be entered in previous Noble County Fair.

Three-dimensional items may be pottery, clay, wood, bronze or any other media. Must have depth.

Each exhibitor must choose a class (medium) and category to enter. Each exhibitor may ONLY enter one item from each class. THIS IS DIFFERENT THAN PAST YEARS, BEGINNING IN 2017. For example, an exhibitor could choose one oil seascape (1a) and then an acrylic still life (2b). This means at the maximum an exhibitor could enter 12 items each being in a different class. We are looking to enhance overall quality of all entries.

FOOD PRESERVATION Section 507 Assistant - Michelle Kuchera

- All exhibits in this department must be free from adulteration and be the work of the person entering the same. No club – must be individual work.
- All canned items may be shown in any size standard, clean jars with rings as specified. No 1-piece lids. Remove ring, clean jar, and bring jar with ring on (jar rings will be taken off by the judges and will be put back on after judging). No coloring is to be added to any jars, except candied cucumbers and cucumber rings.
- All exhibits in this department must be the work of the exhibitor since the fair of 2023. NOTE: Jars entered in the 2023 fair have been dated. They cannot be entered again.
- General rules of the Noble County Free Fair apply to this department.
- No exhibitor will be permitted two entries on one premium number.
- No exhibitor will be allowed to interfere with judges in the performance of their duty.
- To establish a separate class, there must be three (3) or more entries of the same exhibit. Please label jars as to content.
- Classes will be divided into two age groups:
 - Youth – 18 and younger
 - Adult – 19 and over
 An “Y” or “A” must be included with the class number.

Jars will be judged according to these standards:

1. FILLED JAR
 - Headspace must correspond to the instruction on the jar and lid packaging or the reference guides listed. The top of the finished recipe or liquid covering produce should provide adequate headspace as stated in the approved guidelines from National Center for Home Food Preservation (nchfp.uga.edu).
 - Air bubbles must be kept to a minimum. Gas bubbles denote spoilage; they are identified by movement of bubbles to the surface of the product while the jar is stationary.
 - Bands should remain in place to transport preserved food. Remove bands care fully to determine if the headspace is correct. Replace bands for product display.
2. HEAT PROCESS
 - Methods used to heat process foods must comply with current preserving guidelines as stated in the approved reference guides. The boiling-water process for acid foods and steam-pressure process for low-acid foods are the only recommended methods to heat process foods for shelf storage.
 - Times for heat processing preserved foods correctly vary depending on each specific recipe or food type. Processing times must be in agreement with those listed in the approved reference guides (National Center for Home Food Preservation).
3. PRODUCT APPEARANCE
 - Produce should be free from blemishes, stems, pits and peels. Some recipes may state stems, pits and peels are not removed; this is acceptable if the recipe is in keeping with all other preserving guidelines.
 - Liquid must be clear and free from cloudiness and small particles unless there are ingredients added to the recipe that would naturally affect its clarity.
 - Texture is affected by heat processing; however, the finished product should not appear over-cooked or break down.
 - Ingredients should retain their shape and size based on the type and preparation method. Cut pieces of uniform size should be packed evenly in the jar yet allow adequate room for liquid to circulate throughout the jar.
 - Safety is of utmost importance. Any entry exhibiting spoilage or not in compliance with judging guidelines must be disqualified.

Upon Carlin's discharge from the US Navy, they returned to Perry to make their forever home.

Linda became a member of the Busy Homemakers group and was very involved not only in her local group but also the county organization. She served her local group as President in 1979 and 1980, 1987, and 1993 and 1994. Linda was Noble County president from 1991 through 1994. She also was a member of several committees in her local group and the county organization. In 1987, Linda was named Noble County Member of the Year.

She has been Superintendent of the Hobbies Division at the Noble County Fall Fair since 2014. Linda checks in the exhibits, assists the judging of these exhibits, places ribbons on each item, tallies the results and then displays each exhibit in an attractive way. Linda encourages each exhibitor and has seen a tremendous growth in this department.

Linda's work history has included working at Safeway, in soft count at Paradise Casino, providing child care in her home and has served as a care giver. She studied at Northern Oklahoma College. Linda enjoys making pottery.

She and her late husband are the parents of two sons, William and Jeffrey. They have been blessed with several grandchildren.

Please join us in thanking Linda for her continued support of our Noble County Fair.
