2. Bonuses will be determined by percentage of species shown.
3. Show for bonus order will follow the judging of each division.
4. Exhibitors must be present to show for Show Back Order and Bonus Order. If they are not present then they will forfeit the opportunity to receive Bonus Money. The only exception will be in the case of illness and other sanctioned school activities. In the event of illness or other school activities, the show superintendent must be notified prior to the start of species judging. The substitute show person may only be another exhibitor showing an animal in the Pawnee County Jr. Livestock show.
5. The owner of each animal that enters and shows will receive a Class Premium no matter where they place in their class.
6. Exhibitors in the Market steer, Prospect steer, Market swine, Market lamb and Market goat divisions are eligible to receive full bonuses on two animals if they have a second animal selected in the bonus order.
7. An Exhibitor may receive the following Awards:
 - Grand Champion, Reserve Grand Champion and 3rd Place awards in: Market Steers, Market Sheep, Market Swine, & Market Goats
 - Grand Champion & Reserve Grand Champion Awards in: Prospect Steers BUT: An Exhibitor may only receive 2 bonus monies per market species.
8. If an exhibitor goes to OYE Jr. Livestock show and places in the premium sale, Premier Doe Sale or the Select Gilt Sale with an animal that was exhibited at the PCJLS, the Board will reward them with an add on premium of $200.
9. If an exhibitor goes to OYE Jr. Livestock Show and places as Supreme Champion, Reserve Supreme Champion, or Bronze Medalist with a heifer or ewe that was exhibited at the PCJLS show that same year will be awarded $200.
10. If a PCJLS exhibitor in the Jr. Intermediate and Sr. Division for each species goes to the OYE Jr. Livestock Show and win their showmanship Division, they will be awarded $200 for Champion and $50 for Reserve Champion in their Division.
11. If a PCJLS exhibitor places in the top 3 in Skill-A-Thon and/or Fitting Contests at OYE they will be awarded Champion $200, Reserve $150, and Bronze $100.

GENERAL SHOW RULES

1. The Pawnee County Jr. Livestock Show is a complete show in its own right.
2. Every exhibitor is responsible for cleaning their stalls during the show, and removing their exhibits from the show barn upon completion of the show. At the completion of the show there will be no stall clean up, however we would appreciate your help in tear down and storage of equipment.
3. All animals must be presented in an appropriate show manner, the species superintendent, or the show superintendent has the discretion to warn exhibitors or ban the exhibits for failure to comply with this rule. The superintendent will check animals before the show for cleanliness.
4. Any animal that is determined to be a Cryptorchid will not be allowed to show.
5. Entries must be shown by their owners, except in the case of illness, other sanctioned school activities or in the case of one exhibitor owning two animals in the same class. In the event of illness or other school activities, the show superintendent must be notified prior to the start of species judging. The substitute show person may only be another exhibitor within local community, first preference within same club, showing an animal in the Pawnee County Jr. Livestock Show.
6. Any protest must be made in writing and accompanied by a deposit of $150.00. The deposit will be forfeited if protest is not sustained. The protest must be filed prior to dismissal of animals or the time the general show superintendent has declared the livestock show over. It shall be decided by the Board of Directors and their decision is final.
7. No feed will be allowed in the show arena.
8. No drugs will be allowed, unless prescribed by a veterinarian and approved by the General Superintendent and Species Superintendent before administering.
9. The Board of Directors reserves the right to amend these rules as they, in their judgment, deem advisable.
10. Due to safety, no heat lamps or heating devices allowed in bedding areas.
11. No one in the barns from 12:00 a.m. to 6:00 a.m.

GUIDELINES FOR LOSS OF ANIMALS DUE TO TRAGEDY

WAYNE SPEARS MEMORIAL TROPHY

In 2012 Pawnee County lost an outstanding individual that was a very strong community leader and supporter of the 4-H and FFA programs in Pawnee County. Wayne Spears' love for the youth livestock program helped many youth to succeed in their livestock projects. Wayne served on the Pawnee County Jr. Livestock Board and was a member of local booster clubs for many years.

To honor Wayne and the love and support he had for the livestock program; the Spears family, Edna, Roger and Jill, along with the Pawnee County Jr. Livestock Board of Directors has developed an award to be presented each year at the Spring Livestock Show. This award will consist of a traveling trophy, a belt buckle and a banner that will be presented to the Champion Sr. Beef Showmanship winner. The traveling trophy will be on display for one year at the recipients' school and then returned to be presented at the next show. The recipient will keep the belt buckle and banner.

Stan Fimple Memorial Trophy

Stan Fimple Pawnee County OSU Extension agent from 1980 to 1984 then again 2011 to 2017.

In 1979 Stan graduated from OSU with a degree in Animal Science. The following year he began his Extension career in Pawnee County, where he and his wife Debbie acquired many friends. In 1984 he followed Debbie's Veterinarian career to Canadian County. Upon Debbie's retirement they moved back to Pawnee County. In 2011 Stan became the Pawnee County Ag/4-H Educator once again.

On November 1, 2017 Stan retired leaving with this statement, "I started working for a lady and ended working for a lady. But I couldn't have asked to work with anyone better than Martha Waters and Trinity Brown, they were great people to work with and I'm glad that I had the opportunity to work with them."

In 2018 Pawnee County lost a very intelligent agricultural leader. To honor Stan and the love he had for the kids in agriculture the extension office developed this traveling trophy to be giving to the Champion Sr. Sheep showman.
