POULTRY DIVISION RULES

1. An individual exhibitor can enter poultry in up to five (5) classes.
2. Entries will be in one of the following categories:
Large Fowl Bantams
3. Sub classes in each breed will be:
Cock (C) A male 12 months or older
Hen (H) A female 12 months or older
Cockerel (K) A male under 12 months
Pullet (P) A female under 12 months
4. All varieties will be judged according to the latest edition of the American Standard of Perfection, copyrighted by the American Poultry Association, Inc. Due allowance will be made for lack of plumage because of season.
5. All poultry will be physically inspected for disease and parasites by the superintendent at check-in. All ill or infested birds will be disqualified.
6. Papers for a negative pullorum test must be presented at time of pre-entry and the original must be presented at check-in. Entries not accompanied by pullorum papers will not be entered. All birds must be tested before they come on the grounds. There will not be a tester at the show. All state issued pullorum papers expire within 90 days, unless issued an NPIP 1 year clean flock certificate.
7. All birds must be identified by a numbered leg band. Band numbers must be listed on the registration form. Birds that have no listed band numbers will not be registered.
8. Exhibitors are required to enter correct leg band numbers, proper color, sex and age of bird on entry form.
9. Exhibitors must have owned and cared for their birds at least 60 days prior to the Tulsa County Fair.
10. Exhibitors must be present during the show unless showing other livestock with prior authorization from the show superintendent. Non-compliant exhibitors will be disqualified.
11. Exhibitors must cage and care for their own birds. Birds not caged by or cared for by their owners will be disqualified, unless cleared by Superintendent.
12. There must be at least three birds to constitute a class. Otherwise, they will be shown in the "All Other" class. The show superintendent may combine classes at their discretion.
13. Birds that are not pre-entered by the due date will not be admitted under any circumstances
