REQUIREMENTS LIKE-KIND REAL PROPERTY P. 115 Generally, all real property is considered like-kind Property Relinquished, or Given Up, and Replacement, Property Received, must be Used in a trade or business, or Held for investment purposes Not Personal, Not held primarily for sale, (i.e., Inventory) Property outside the US is not like-kind with property in the US Cross-Reference 2017 NITW, Pages 40-41: very broad qualification of like-kind

T.C	D. 9935 REAL PROPERTY	P. 115
	nal regulations define real property as: Land and improvements to land Unsevered Natural Products of Land: Growing Crops, plant, and Water and airspace – if superjacent to the land Fee Ownership, Leaseholds, Easements or Options to Acquire Other property defined as real property under state or local law Note: federal definition as real property supersedes contrary law

INHERENTLY PERMANENT STRUCTURES

PP. 115-116

- Lengthy list in regulations & Col. 2, page 115
- May be permanently affixed by weight
- If not on the list, apply 5 criteria, page 116, Col. 1
- 1. How affixed to real property
  2. Designed to be removed
  3. Damage caused by removal to item or property
  4. Indication that it won't remain affixed
- 5. Time and expense of removal
- Practitioner Note Machinery & Equipment, Page 116 OK to produce income

P. 116

Regulations list structural components

If not on the list, apply 4 criteria:

- 1. Time and cost to install and remove
- 2. Designed to be removed
- 3. Damage caused by removal
- 4. Whether installed during construction

See  $\underline{\text{Ex. 3.17 and 3.18}}$  (P. 117) – sculpture, 3D printer, and generator are real property

INTANGIBLE ASSETS	P. 117
Considered real property if: derives its value from real property, and is inseparable from the real property
Includes:  Easements, Leasehold or options to acquire  stock in a cooperative housing corporation  certain shares in a mutual ditch, reservoir, or irrigation more restrictive]  Practitioner Note (p. 118) licenses and permits to use
Note: other corporate stock and partnership inte- not qualify as real property	rests, or license to operate do

NCIDENTAL PROPERTY RU	JI F
-----------------------	------	--

P. 118

Allows certain personal property to be included in LKE:

- Property is typically included with the real property in a standard commercial transaction, and
- If the aggregate FMV of the incidental property does not exceed 15% of the FMV of the real property.
- Ex. 3.19; apartment FMV 1.1M, ATB, 400K exchanged for Office Bldg, 1M and Furniture, FMV, 100K, < 15%, meets incidental rule, disregarded for Like-Kind exchange.</li>
- However, 100K less than 700K gain(1.1M-400K ATB) recognized, 1031(b)

AXATION OF LIKE-KIND EXCHANGES

PP. 118-119

•Simplest LKE

- No gain recognized
- Basis of exchange property carries over to replacement property

•Practitioner Note PP. 118 – Related party exchanges okay – watch 2-year trigger

•Gain is recognized to the extent of boot received (cash, unlike property)

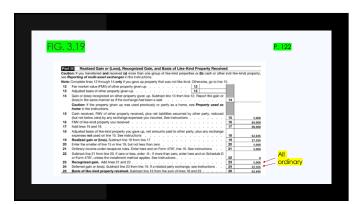

•Practitioner Note PP. 119: QI may hold cash and acquire replacement property

•Ex. 3.20 – Gain recognized lesser of gain or boot received

Rob realizes gain of $40,000 but only recognizes gain of $5,000.
 Basis of new property is Rob's carryover basis ($10,000)

Payment of Boot Does not trigger gain or loss to transferor Increases basis of the replacement property Receipt of Boot May trigger gain Assumption of liabilities by transferee Considered boot received by transferor If debt is assumed as well as given up, only net is considered boot (paid or received)

RECAPTURE RULES STILL APPLY Same recapture property exchanged • Any gain recapture potential carries over to replacement property • Ex. 3.21 • Exchanged green house and received a greenhouse plus $5,000 cash • Realized gain of $27,355, all ordinary due to accumulated depreciation of $37,355. • Recognized gain of $5,000 due to boot received – all ordinary • Remaining recapture potential of $22,355 carries over to replacement property • $62,645 ATB of exchange property also carries over to replacement property
