Discussion Questions

- If someone asks you if they need a permit to farm, what would you say?
- What state wide rules and regulations should people be aware of when engaging in agriculture in urban areas?
- What local agriculture related rules and regulations have you seen impact people in your areas? How would someone find out about local rules and regulations on urban agriculture?
- Where can someone learn more about regulations that impact urban agriculture? What are some reliable sources of information on this topic?
- What potential changes to regulations do you see that could impact urban agriculture?
